Local Bof A winners named

Coronation tonight

Four OHS students were named Bank of America Achievement Awards winners. They are: Tim Armstrong, science and math; Dan Langhoff, liberal arts; Tony Albertoni, fine arts; and Donna Carlson, vocational arts.

The four local "brains" will now compete for cash prizes ranging up to $1000 against seniors from neighboring high schools at a zone event in mid-March.

In addition, 12 OHS seniors received B of A certificates: Angela Drumm, art; Judy Valk, drama; Austin Spurlock, music; Willie Smith, English; Julie Looper, foreign languages; Toni Grgich, social studies; Kurtis Clark, lab sciences; Anne Tyson, math; Joe Amaral, ag; Sheryl Bracells, business; Nel-da Poe, home ec; and Ken Fleming, trades and industrial.

Today is the final day of 1975 Basketball Homecoming Week. The biggest event of the week, the crowning of the Homecoming Queen and Princess, will take place tonight between the varsity and soph games against St. Mary's. The final decision as to who will be the royalty for this year is in the hands of the student body, for a change. A special election is being held today, with these five girls vying for the Queen's crown: Roxanne Bartlow, Sherrie Cardoza, Cindy Carter, Nena Larsen, and Annette Sharp. The Princess will be one of these lucky four: Sandy Bartlow, Coreen Lynch, Bridget Orvis, and Suzie Scherer. All are urged to come witness the multiple coronation tonight, as well as help cheer on our cagers against--as yet--unbeaten St. Mary's.

LOVANNA BROWN TO HONOR BAND

Oakdale High School has a highly accomplished musician in Lovanna Brown.

Lovanna's ability is evidenced by her performance at the all-state Honor Band try-outs December last. Lovanna was one of 250 musicians chosen from over 800 hopefuls throughout the state who auditioned.

Taking into consideration the selectivity involved, the concert, held on February 16, should be one of the best by a high school-aged band in the state. Each member comes to San Luis prepared, as a result of diligently practicing the selections beforehand. Perfection as a band is attained during the three eight hour rehearsal sessions prior to the concert.

Will the ARCADET go under?

The latest victim-to-be of the national recession, OHS's snappy tabloid may soon go under, not to gasp again until next year.

"No ads, no hope for financial help from the student body, a win-a-date that lost money!" is how A-Editor Dan "Little Gene" Langhoff described his sheet's money plight.

The paper may keep going by borrowing money from the Oracle, which is currently $2000 in the red.

"An idea," said D "L G" L, "but not a very good one."

ED.'S NOTE: "Financial difficulties" is also the explanation for the curtailment of our once a week publication schedule. Combined with a lack of copy--due to lack of adequate staff and the fact there's little to report--we therefore publish when things happen and when we have something to print.

CHIT-CHAT ABOUT THIS 'N' THAT

JUDY VALK is back from the Cal-Miss thing, where she missed...but no matter...According to JV, it was "Soo neat." ...TONY ALBERTONI and KIM RAPINCHUK have joined the Arcadet staff...FOUR MINIMUM days have been approved...mark your calendars: Feb. 19, Mar. 19, April 16, May 14...FUTURE FARMERS will get a majority of the space in the Arcadet of the 20th, as part of their activities that week...MICKEY MC MAHON struck out three times in a noon softball game...must be some sort of record...EVELYN BROWN is corresponding with a student in Japan--no word yet as to what language they're using...DUANE ROOTS broke his leg skiing down a bunny hill--ever think of taking up checkers, Duane? ...LYNN HAUSER got her braces off recently...

Anagrams again

The following passage contains anagrams of various faculty members' names. If you can unscramble each and every name, write them down and bring your answers to room 21. The most agile brain will receive a free record from Whitt's Music Box. Dog coluk!

He was LOW ON LINERS, but RANT UNDO VARMENTS. His skin was ILL MADE, WIRY; it was WILD NOON SKIN. The JOG LANE AN' TNT he avoided, as his health would not permit it. Suddenly he shouted, "RUN, YON DRAMS; I JOT TOES!" (You're LEARNING ED.)

Moral: TO CURE TEEN GOON, please DON'T SAY O.K.

DOGO FRIEG!

WE HAVE A WINNER!

Believe it or not, someone actually entered an ARCADET contest! In fact, several persons entered, but the one with the most "dog coluk" was sophomore Theresa Stevenson. It only took her about a class period to unscramble the following names: Al Jericoff, Ned Jackson, Dona Taylor, Robert Scherer, Jim Greaves, Hiltraut Sedwick, Joe Siegfried, Al Fahey, Phyllis Reeves, and Yvonne Allen. We'd like to congratulate Theresa on her cranial agility--for her efforts, she receives a free record. Also, appreciation is extended to those who entered but came away empty-handed--maybe this week.
