Reports from the field on 75-76 prospects

Registration

Neil Weichert, the head of the counseling department, was interviewed concerning the school year 1975-76. Mr. Weichert said registration for classes will be two days before school starts. The walkaround schedule will be in effect once again. The only change will be that priority will be determined by last names instead of numbers. The registration papers will be sent out in the same general manner as last year, and you would be well advised to make sure the office has your correct address.

Principal's prophecy

Robert Scherer, OHS principal, says the English dept. wants to give students better knowledge of reading, writing, and composition. They will emphasize development of Freshman reading skills.

There will be eight more R.O.P. classes.

New roofs will be put on rooms 24, 36, 37, 38, 39, and on the west end of the gym.

The parking lot in front of the gym will be completed and Mr. Scherer hopes to have the parking lot by the Ag buildings blacktopped, too.

Other items: Many testbooks will be replaced, staff changes come in June or July, and next year's student government--well, that will depend on those involved.

Faculty addition

Oakdale High School Dean of Girls, Cathleen Jaroch, has announced that OHS will have a resource teacher under the special education department. Mrs. Jaroch will also work with this new faculty member.

Regional Occupation Program

After an extensive interview with Charles Hutchison, director of the Regional Occupation Program, many changes for the upcoming year were revealed. At a recent Board Meeting, 8 new R.O.P. classes were approved.

Aeronautics is one of the additions. This class will be 2 hours long (the standard length). During the first year, students will have basic ground-school training. Actual flying will be taught after school and/or on weekends. Mr. Hutchison feels privileged to be adding this new and exciting course to the list.

With the new Student Center on the way, class in "Snack Bar Operation" will come, too. Book Keeping, ordering of supplies, selling, stocking, and cleaning will all be part of the agenda.

A Career Center will also be added. It will be a "mini library" with individual help for planning your future. There will be counseling and guidance on "where to go afterwards," also.

An additional Electronics class will be available next year. This class will be an extensive study of modern electrical machinery.

Child Care is a new one, too. Mr. Hutchison hopes to rent a house near school and make it a day care center for children of working mothers between the ages of 2 and 5. Students will aid the teacher in charge, while learning patience, first aid, and basic care of the tots themselves.

• Among the other approved R.O.P. classes are: Merchandising, Advanced Metal Fabrication, and Production Graphics and landscaping. These are all good, interesting classes and for more information see Mr. Hutchison or your counselor.

Mr. Hutchison closed by praising our school board. He would like to pay them a tribute for their open-mindedness on these new classes. They are new and all new things either go well or they flop. Fully enough interest from the students will make them a success for everyone.

For the 1975-76 year, Electricity will be offered as an R.O.P. class. Other subjects in Industrial Art will be more or less the same way as this year, except for keeping up with current industry. The techniques in Drafting will be pretty much the same also. Electricity, being under the R.O.P. Program, will be the biggest change. A new class which is going to be offered to the students as an R.O.P. class, is an aircraft program. These are the changes that will occur for Industrial Arts in 1975-76.

Business

According to Al Fahy, head of the business department here at Oakdale High, there will not be a great deal of changes in course offerings for next school year. A new class for Freshmen is being offered. The class, typing and basic business, which is to be taught by Jim Greaves, will consist of one semester of typing and one of basic business. It is hoped that this class will replace Introduction to Business.

What's up in English

Eugene Conrotto, the chairman of our English department, has decided to spread the word about English requirements. For those of you who plan on not taking English III, your days are numbered.

Mr. Conrotto states that sophomores and juniors will not be able to take an elective unless they are in the top 25% and 40%, respectively, of their class. The only two alternate electives are Literature and Composition. Both classes have a quarter rotation of teachers.

The four teachers for Literature are Phil Steinhart (Poetry), Norman Sturdevant (Non-fiction), Don Press (Short story), and Hiltrout Sedwick (Novel).

The Composition teachers are Mr. Conrotto (expository and writing) Mr. Steinhart (creative writing), Mr. Sturdevant (Library-research) and Mr. Press (vocabulary and spelling).

These two electives will replace College Entrance English, novels, short story, poetry, mythology, literature of today, etc.

Mr. Conrotto feels that the biggest change in the English Dept. will be on the freshman level. All freshmen will be taught by

Social Studies stays static

Don Osman, chairman of the Social Science Department, stated there will be no changes in Social Yvonne Allen and Dave Jackson. These two teachers will no longer have any other classes, except freshmen. Room 24 will be turned into a reading lab with Fred Stone and Evelyn Nuebaum, from Riverbank High, in charge of reading development. Mr. Conrotto says, "I am sorry that the present Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors will not have this opportunity because we should be able to produce better readers." Mr. Sturdevant will take drama as part of Oral Arts.

According to Mr. Conrotto, Mr. Press and Mrs. Sedwick will be in charge of sophomores, Mr. Sturdevant and Mr. Steinhart in charge of English III, and Mr. Conrotto will have Senior Skills and Honors in addition to the communications electives. Next year's year-book will be strictly be a bicentennial year-book. There will be a special class in summer school for the Oracle, Arcadet, and Broadcast.

Science Classes next year. The reasons are because "In the past several years, the Social Science Dept. would like to have offered sociology, psychology, anthropology, ecology; however, funds never seem to be available to hire the staff necessary to teach the new courses that we would like to offer in addition to the regular curriculum. However there are possible changes in the S.S. Dept. if the graduation requirements change. No one knows yet if there are going to be any graduation requirement changes." Mr. Osman will teach civics, Dynamics of Democracy and Current Events. Mr. Jim Riddle will teach Early Calif. History, Modern Calif. History and Current Events. Mr. Visco Grinch will teach State Requirements and Job opportunities. Mr. Bob Hake will teach U.S. History, Early Calif. History and Mod. Calif. History. Mrs. Glengene Warner will teach Modern Calif. History. Mrs. John Quaccia will teach Job Opportunities.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

As this is probably my last letter to you, I'm going to ask one big question to some people (and you know who you are). What I want to know is, "Why?"

Why did you run for class president if you weren't going to do a darn thing. Why run if all you wanted was the title for your own personal gain? Did you realize that since your class trusted you enough to vote you into office, why did you let them down?

Why, people, is it that at a class meeting to plan a rally, you always want to get the "guys", (who don't care enough to come to a class meeting), to do the things. Why is it that you always ignore the people who work for and invest their time in the rally? Is it because you want all the spotlight to promote yourselves and your egos? Why won't you share?

And finally to the rest of you out there, why do you continue to let this happen. Why can't you see the light?

Another quick bit of advice to the OHS student body is this--don't waste all of your enthusiasm and energy on football. There are many other sports which deserve some little bit of backing, as well many other groups not related to athletics. Give them just a little bit of the support you give our football teams, and you will be amazed at the well-rounded school you can create.

There are a lot of things not exactly fair or just or good about this school. Yet, I feel there is at least one major area in which Oakdale far surpasses many high schools--and that is the demeanor of its students. Sure, there are a lot of "rowdies," but they're not the hard-core ruffians you find at some of your more metropolitan areas. Having moved here just a few years ago, I was pleasantly surprised just how basically nice people were here. In fact, I can only think of a couple of people I would classify as really bad eggs. On the whole, this school, and community in general, has a higher percentage of just plain good people than any I know of. Even those you may disagree with ideologically are at least respectful of your opinion. A big thing missing here is the flagrant, outwardly-apparent "status-seeking" you see in many areas. If only we'd be a bit more friendly to new people to the area, and a little less clique-ish...

The legacies of our dear departing seniors

I, Raynette Aloisio, will to Mary Rees, my 200,000,000 kisses I received from Tony Albertoni germs and all. Suiska Reeves, the ice cold piano keys on the piano in the choir room which I froze my fingers on. Mr. Conrotto, my favorite teacher, a load of thank-yous for everything you've given me in the past four years, I'll never ever forget you and Mr. Dahlin, another load of thank-yous for everything you have given me, I'm very grateful for everything. You've given me so much, I don't really think I can ever thank you enough.

I, Roxanne Bartlow, will to Belinda McKee, and Tana Cole, my ability to eat one cookie and gain 500 lbs. I will my lovely, burnt out sister, a first aid kit in order to survive 2 more years of this school and last but not least--NOTHING!

I, Paula Bloodgood, will to Matt Vejar and Frank Martinez, all of next year to argue who's the best team in Football, Basketball and Baseball. And to all the strange people who hang out in the library, the chess set that I hate! And to Mrs. Reeves all of the kids at Fair Oaks.

I, Shirley Fox do hereby will and bequeath my pooh bear to Dan Jackson in hopes that he will use him in place of me at night to keep him warm.

I, Tami McClellan, will to Diane Zumwalt the ability to party, party, party and not be a lightweight. Kim Coughran the ability to pass her classes with a D average. And Charlene Cardoza the ability to take things as they come.

I, Jay Gange, will to Rex David Gange, my B track tape deck; Nadine Pusel, my shoes; Nannette Adams, my old clothes; Jack Gange, my Rock and Roll pictures.

I, Ruth Davenport will to Diane Flanagan, Dave's spare bedroom anytime she has the urge.

I, Terri Gonsalves, will to Kenneth Stanfield my trusty school ring, to ever remind him it is cemented on his finger. To Danny Taylor I leave my Orthodontist in regard that you will give up, and go straight, and to all the gossiping people whom I will not be sorry to leave behind, I leave you the restroom walls to write to your hearts content.

I, Laurie Viss, will to my brother Pete: all my old flat tennis balls and my dirty, stinky wristband. My father, Mr. Viss: the spirit to still be concerned for the welfare of the students, to cause trouble and raise Cain with the Faculty to make life on campus a little more exciting and bearable.

I, Jack (Alan) Pruett, will to 1) Dave Bacigalupi my great ability of tackling and running from the ball, 2) Shawn Reeves my great rebounding and jumping ability, 3) Brian (Browny) Graves my hiding and fielding ability 4) Steve Rocha my great golf swing and the ability to strikeouts looking.

I, Toni Grgich, will to Mike Drvis my bottle of "Rum" so he can party, party, party and keep the good times rolling. To Rita Corrigan, I will my most cherished possession--THE HOT FALCOON, so she can be cool and low ride in the front of school. I'll even let you burn 'em off!!! Rita, you also deserve all my "luck" for the planning of next year's BEAR VALLEY TRIP!!! And to Rena Goedhart I will all of this year's gossip so she can have something to talk about next year!

I, John Burton, will to Don Hendrix the ability to drink more than three beers and still keep working on the case.

I, Regina Story, will to Vera Lopez, Janette Williams, Theresa Parker, my eyelashes to Theresa, my A and B grades to Vera, my ability not to ditch to Janette since she always gets caught! And to Christine Lopez my high pitched voice so she can sing.

I, Sherie Cardoza, will to my sister Charlene Cardoza, two more wonderful years in Oakdale Hi with Bimbo, or maybe I should say (Mr. Steinhart) and the ugly brown "Pinto" to drive 18 miles "to & from" school every day. Have fun! And to Sharon Malone I leave all my sympathy for not being able to give her an out-of-site brother like she gave me...!!!

I, Grog Golo, will to Grunt--my table at "Margie's". To John Reed--my table at San Pam. To Brett Dickerson--my rust in the TuckieTuckieTree and to David Mitchell--the ability to lead "Jumping Jacks."

I, Kary Miller, will to Julie and Dede Nash and Barbara Shuck my little brother Quint to fight over.

I, P.J. Barton, will to Mary Rees, my place as Mr. D's girlfriend, Tony Albertoni, 6' of my legs, to Ms. Allen, 1 magic wand and a pound of Fairy dust. And because I always wanted to give my body to science here's to Mr. Thrasher.

I, Charmaine DeSimas, will to my baby sister Freshman Charlayne DeSimas my Senior Class Clown outfit, and my almost nervous breakdown.

I, Anne Tyson, will to PePe (sit) several worn and discarded teachers, five (5) bright shiny spit wads, a tradition to break, 2 (two) leaves of grass, 1 found on the lawn one day; to Zane's little brother Re-run, 7 tons of mental anguish; to the chess club an empty board, and to everybody, lots of sunny days next year economically, socially, psychologically and weather-wise.

I, Patti Ozbirn, will to Mavis Adams, my kicked-in bottom locker to have all to herself.

I, Vickie Green, will to Mrs. Princevalle my empty boxes of animal crackers. Beth Horton, my excellent grades. Joy Green, my P.E. clothes. And to Cindy Horton, my talent in singing.

I, Kurt Mahaney, will all of my ability to pitch at the famous Oakdale High Stadium to Stevie McAllister (which isn't much) and to Poo Bear, he can have my sanitary's and to Kyle and Danny my T.A. fourth and my free 5th period.

I, Craig Celso Vazquez, will my Tennis racket to Richard Ramsey and my Football cleats to Gary Viera plus the tennis courts to Norm Sturdevant. Whoop-pee!!!

I, Sherlynn Reynolds, will to Marty Arnold, the courage to make it through the noon hours without watching the Flintstones and the strength to make it through Viss's class alone. Later.

I, Jinks Santos, will to Mrs. Anita Jackson absolutely nothing for she deserves more than I could ever think of willing her. And to Cacha Peabody: my aqua-filters. To Jules Hofmann, my big, red Pumas, just because she admires them so much. To Jenni, Barbara, and Wanita, all the Wrigley's Spearmint chewing gum they can chew. And to all of the girls who ever had me for their T.A., I will the ability to put up with the little angels! Oh, yeah! Last, but of course not least, to Mrs. Shirley Thrasher, the ability to clear the ditch coming off the second tee!

I, Cathy Talbert, will to Wild Wild Roger West, my wide, white lettered, oval tires off the hot pent, so that he'll be able to make the A&W scene more often. Also, hang in there Rog' you're doing a fine job as office boy.

I, Zane Johnston, will to Mr. Osman my Nixon Agnew buttons. To Ms. Allen my father's pants, since she is trying to be a man anyway. To Mike House my great leadership ability since from the looks of whats happened this year, he could definately use it. To Eric Bettencourt my great horsepower-per-pound ratio. And to all of the loosing candidates this year, I leave to each one of you a membership in the Losers' Club.

I, Dan Langhoff I, Equire, will to D. Osman all my "wonderful, creative" Civics assignments--may their biting satire eat a bit of his lunch, also (so as to further the calorie intake reduction process). To my paisie-walsie (speaking for myself), E. Conrotto, I leave any wordy and sloppily-written original manuscripts which may be cluttering up his room. For his future entertainment and edification, I also commit to his memory the multitudes of semi-entertaining pearls of wisdom I have uttered in his presence during the past four years. To Pete Viss I leave anything not on my person or worth over $5 that I have which he has not. To K. Rapinchuk (or whoever gets stuck with it), I relinquish responsibility for the school uh, "newspaper." In doing so may I quote the line, "Take this, brother (sister), and may it serve you well." To R. Dahlin, I leave this helpful advice--"buy your Excedrin by the case." To any lovers of watching a good tennis match, may I take this opportunity to advise watching TV rather than the HS squad. To D. Runion I leave any stray bits of vocabulary she may want to use. To anyone on the yearbook staff--may they bring organization and initiative for a change.

To the faculty and administration of this school--continued open-mindedness, in a continuing effort to make this institution as good as it can be.

More Senior wills

I, Melinda Lynch, will to my little sister, Coreen, the ability to make it to Oakdale in less than ten minutes, and the ability to eat all the time and not gain weight. I will to Julie Hofmann my P.E. locker, so she won't have to dress next to the door. To all the new P.E. T.A.'s that have P.E. sixth, to have a nice initiating party given by the fire extinguisher. To Mrs. Jackson, my germ infested whistle. To all the hockey players, Beware! Coby Van Ruiten has a wild stick. Just look at what she did to me!

Suzie Scherer my Varsity Megaphone and to Don Valk, my little baby brother, the lead in next year's Musical and to Kyle Brandt, my ability in Broadcasting and my spirit to the school.

I, Tony Albertoni, being of exceptionally sound mind and body, will to my brother, Bob, all the germs I got from Julie Nash and Judy Valk because he can't seem to get any himself. To Brian Bell, I will my slave, Mary Rees, with instructions not to beat her more than 12 times a day. To Mr. Dahlin, I will my hairy chest so that he will have a matching set with the hair on his head. To Valerie Kidd, I will my exceptional ability not to yell at the Band. To Ed Rapinchuk, I will some Dark colored peach fuzz so that you could at least see it. To Josie Rodriguez, I will my chair that rips clothes. (Even tho' I know how much Lynn would like it!!) To Pete Viss, I will my ability to be able to get my way with the Student Body President. And finally to my extremely loyal slave and pal, Mary Rees, I will my very muscular body, since that was all she was after anyway.

I, Judy Valk, will to Join the people who've joined the Army.

A lot of young men and women have discovered a good place to invest their time. The Army. What they've found here, they may not have been able to get anywhere else.

Some came to learn a skill. With training in over 300 kinds of jobs to choose from. Some came for the chance to work in Europe, Korea, Alaska, Hawaii or almost anywhere in the U.S.A.

Some came to meet a unique personal challenge. Like the responsibility of doing a good job at an early age. Some came to get a start on their college education. With the Army paying up to 75% of their tuition.

And some came to do something positive for their Country. Which is a pretty good reason in itself.

Tennis courts, stadium in sight

(WVP)--When one reposes in room --, and the action is not fast and furious enough to hold the attention riveted on the blackboard, one can see many interesting sights out the door. They are easier to see if you are sitting towards the back of the room.

If you're whiling away the hours in any of periods 1-5, you may see see a girls' P.E. class making an attempt to do a "I Am Laver's Forehand" show on the tennis courts.

If one is so inclined, one may also gaze at the football field area, about which various magnificent hulks of masculinity run for being bad boys and/or weaklings.

Of course, one may also stare, fascinated, at the fast and furious softball games on vari-

If nothing else, when trying to find something to occupy your attention on a boring day, you can watch the grass turn brown, or the heat waves rise. There's always something to keep the OHS student busy.

Ag Outlook for 75-76

By Candy Eckert

In the FFA program, Mr. Hendricks says they hope to have more field trips and more judging contests, without the transportation restrictions faced this year.

Another major change with the FFA is the membership requirements. According to the State FFA Constitution, membership is open only to Vocational Agriculture majors. A Vo. Ag. major is a student who is taking two or more years of AG. classes, and has selected agriculture as a career goal. Only "active" FFA members may participate in fairs, shows, or win awards and scholarships. "Active" is defined as "one who pays dues, attends a majority of meetings, is active in committees, has a supervised project, or earns at least 1000 points on the point award system (member must have satisfactorily completed two out of the last three)".

The department encourages all VoAg majors to take at least one year of Ag. Mechanics, because farmers, employers, etc are upset with high school graduates who can't hammer, saw, or do simple repair work.

Mr. Hendricks also said the Department feels that the Agricultural Program approach--where students set goals and plan courses to meet them--offers many advantages to both the students and the instructors.

Don Hendricks, Ag Dept. Chairman, says that there will be some major changes in the Ag. Department next year.

Ag majors will have several curriculum changes, with a new class for the spring semester. The class, Horse Husbandry, will be offered in conjunction with 11 other classroom electives, three shop electives completing the required courses. The required course list will have another change, inasmuch as this year, first year Ag. students were required to take Introduction to Ag and Ag Careers, and the following year an elective. Next year, however students will be required to take the Intro class, and then a second year class, Basic Plant and Animal Science. Upon completion of these courses, they may take an elective, girls will again be allowed to take Basic Ag Mechanics

Skills, or shop (Ag majors only).

Science

William Maxey, chairman of the science department, has decided to tell everyone about the proposed science requirements. The incoming freshmen will have to take either Life Science or Earth Science. They will also have to have two years of Science. According to Mr. Maxey, before you graduate you will have had to have either a Physical Science or a Biological Science. The Physical Sciences consists of Chemistry, Physics and Earth Science. The Biological Sciences will contain the following: Biology and Life Science.

By Connie Burton

Boys' Phys. Ed.

According to Coach Jack Walker, Boy's P.E. will not be changed in 75-76. Next year's special sports will be as follows: Physical fitness, Weight training, Wrestling, Gymnastics, Tennis and Badminton. Team sports will be: Basketball, Volleyball, Softball, Speedball, Soccer and regular daily calisthenics.

If you could be anyone alive today, who would you be and why?

Ms. Allen--Queen Elizabeth; to show Bart Barringer and Zane Johnston that women can be great rulers.

Jenny Blake--Barbara Striesand: because she's a great singer and actress.

Kathy Van Ruiten--Elizabeth Taylor; 'cause she's rich, famous, and talented.

Bob Bashaw--Judge John Sirica; I'd like to know what actually happened in Watergate, and throw Nixon in jail.

Mr. Stone--A first grader, 'cause they seem to have a lot of fun, and a lot ahead of them.

Hiram Van Norman--Bobby Fisher, so I could beat everyone in fifth period at chess.

Banz Herrmann--Boris Spaski, so i could compete with Hiram in Chess.

Luis Miranda--Judy Valk, so I could wear glitter nail polish, have long blonde hair, and drive a green Mustang with 'Humboldt State' on the back.

Mark Vejar--Joe Namath: he gets what he wants, when he wants it, and he's got a lot of money.

Melinda Lynch--Carol Burnett; she's always on T.V. and always smiling and making people happy.

Mr. Conrotto--A cook for Mr. Osman, that way if we ever have a depression, I would never be out of work.

Homemakers wish to integrate

The Homemaking Dept. headed by Phyllis Reeves does not plan to change much next year. The classes themselves will stay pretty much the same but the content will be different. She hopes to get into consumerism.

Over the summer Mrs. Reeves will be working on changing the curriculum and rewriting the units.

Student Teacher Aid R.O.P. classes will continue next year at Katroaks. The teachers aid program prepares students for paid teacher aid jobs after high school. Also there will be two Homemaking I classes, one Homemaking II class and one Homemaking III class.

Mrs. Reeves stated

she would like to see more boys interested in Homemaking classes.
