THREE POINTS OF VISS' 9 POINT PLAN FOR HOMECOMING

Pete Viss wants to see all the old stand-bys for Homecoming Week continue. The traditional Tricycle Grand Prix, Powder Puff Football, Push Ball, and of course, the conventional Homecoming Parade featuring our own High School Band (in their new uniforms!) as well as the beautiful QUEEN Contestants. Pete expects to see these traditions carried out with vigor and devotion.

Pete Viss feels that Homecoming lost something when former Vice-Presidents and their Homecoming Committees decided to discontinue activities such as the Apple Dunking Contest, the Bonfire Spirit Rally, etc.,etc.,etc.. Pete wants these events to return to Oakdale High School in order to make Homecoming as spectacular and memorable as ever.

In addition to the old conventional traditions of Homecoming Week, Pete Viss would like to see new innovations. He believes OHS is ready for "new" things.

"Pete Viss has got to be the best prospect for the public office I have ever encountered. A snappy dresser, coordinated athlete, literary whiz, straight-legged good egg, Pete, my buddy, would be the best thing to hit student government in eons. By the way, this is not a slanted testimonial."

VISS IS IT!

A LETTER FROM PETE VISS

Since I'm hardly known as a spotlight-seeker, it surprises me almost as much as it surprises you that I am running for this high office. However, contemplated the situation a good while and was constantly reminded of the old saying, "If want something done right, do it yourself." I'm tired of seeing all "follower" types being elected "leaders"—and by "followers" I mean those who are not known for creativity and original thinking, but rather give vocal support to others' "great ideas." I finally came to the conclusion that I should offer my services to my peers, rather than sit back and criticize every move.

Because of these reasons and because of my understanding of the duties of the vice-president—those of replacing the president when he/she is incapacitated (or dead) and assuming the responsibility of the Homecoming festivities—I feel I would make one heck-of-a-vice-president.

I urge you to VOTE VISS!

*Sincerely,
Pete
